

much for the number of its social functions as for the entire pleasure which they have yielded. The reception and card party of Mrs. F. D. Hobbs, the card party given by Mrs. George Y. Wallace and the luncheon in knonor of Miss Cavanaugh were the principal events of the week, while numerous small affairs have been given in honor of guests or departing school boys and girls. Devotees of outdoor sport have a constant source of pleasure in the links at the Country club and every moment is uffixed in enjoying to the full the autumn weather. The death of the president has filled all circles with sorrow and many events which held borth promises of keen enjoyment have been abandoned and invitations realled. The calendar shows a dearth of amusements, while society shares in the grief of a nation.

Reception.

The reception given by Mrs. F. D. Hobbs on Wednesday afternoon will be remembered as one of the most recherche affairs of the autumn and the beautiful weather, heightened the leasure of the afternoon. Fully 150 much for the number of its social func-tions as for the entire pleasure which Reception.

The reception given by Mrs. F. D. Hobbs on Wednesday afternoon will be remembered as one of the most recherche affairs of the season. It was the first "At Home" of the autumn and the beautiful weather, heightened the pleasure of the atternoon. Fully 150 Icdies responded to the invitations. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. H. King, Mrs. Hal Brown and Mrs. Bowman. Miss Bartch served punch. Those assisting in the dining room were Miss Peytun, Miss Morrison, Miss Stewart and Miss Hobbs. The decoration of the rooms was beautful in the extreme. The gorgeous sunflower clustered on mantels, piano and bookcases. It festooned the arches and chandelier and twined in and out of the balustrade in the reception hall. Large bunches of the nodding flower were placed everywhere about the rooms, making a veritable garden of brightness. In contrast to this was the dining room in delicate shades of pink and white. Here, tempting jees were served throughout the affornoon.

Sixty-three.

Sixty-three.

served throughout the afternoon.

Sixty-three.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hobbs entered the state of the control of the control

Mrs. Burns Macdonald was on Wednesday the hostess at a beautiful luncheon given in honor of Miss Mary-Louise Anderson, who leaves this week for the east. The table was exquisitely arranged in pink and white asters. Covers were laid for Mrs. Union Worthington, Miss Mary Louise Anderson, Miss Hanauer, Miss Ida Hanauer, Miss Keith, Miss Crawford, Mrs. Fischer, Mrs. F. S. Bascom and Miss Thorn.

At Cards.

One of the largest and most enjoyable events of the week was the card party on Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. George Y. Wallace for her daughter. Mrs. George Tuttle of St. Louis. The rooms presented a most artistic appearance in pink and white asters. Sixty-three was the game played and Mrs. S. Woodward was the fortunate winner of the first prize. Mrs. H. D. Niles was awarded the consolation. Pen and link sketches fied with pirk and white ribbons formed the tally and score cards. The players were Meedames O. W. Powers, Charles Read, James A. Miner, Harkness, T. G. Webber, G. P. Holman, Le Grand Young, J. E. Caine, Thomas Jennings, F. J. Fablan, J. D. Thompson, F. L. Oswald, D. C. Dunbar, David Keith, Woodward, Mary Gimer, G. M. Downey, Faber, Hariauer, C. C. Goodwin, A. B. Wallace, Penrose, Schley, Levin Allen, Thompson, G. B. Pfoutz, T. B. Reatty, J. T. White, F. A. Druehl, W. W. Elasg, M. J. Cheesman, H. D. Niles, W. A. Nelden, Hoyt Sherman, O. J. Salisbury, E. Wilkes, O. K. Lewis, W. H. Bancroft, William McGrath, Ferguson, Rhoades.

Whist Party.

Informal Affair.

About twenty-five of the young friends of Paul Nelden were pleasantly entertained at his home on Friday evening. Prize was now hy Mr. Easyste, Charles Read, Mrs. Gard, McMillan, Mildren McMillan, Alidre luncheon was a special attraction for the day. In the evening tea was dis-pensed by Miss Harkness, Miss Nason and Miss McCornick.

Mrs. Milton E. Lipman gave a delightful luncheon and card party Saturday in honor of Miss Wylle of Chicago, who is the guest of Miss Edna Cohn.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury was hostess at a dinner party on Wednesday evening. The menu was most elaborate. Covers were laid for twelve. The dinner was followed by a trip to Saltair.

followed by a trip to Saltair.

The marriage of Miss Annie Smith and Mr. Edward E. Rich will be solemnized on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the reception tendered Dr. and Mrs. Albritton at the First Methodist church on Thursday evening. The large attendance attested the good feeling with which the members welcome their new pastor into their midst.

Miss Lettie Wray and Mr. John M. Morris, both of St. Joseph, Mo., were married on Wednesday afternoon at St. Mark's cathedral by Rev. Abjel Leonard. Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make their home in this city, receiving their friends at 35 Fourth East street.

Mrs. H. S. Lapish was hostess at a dinner party on Tuesday evening given in honor of her granddaughters, the Misses Fannie and Laura Bird. Miss Irene Lakin charmingly entertained at her home on Thursday evening. A game of high five was enjoyed. A special treat of the evening was the music given by Mrs. Helen Brown-Sabin, a talented planist of Chicago and Mrs. Percy Somers-Cocks.

Myra Murdock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Murdock of Beaver and Mr. William Henry De Wolfe. The marriage will take place this month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gilligan gave a delightful reception on Monday evening for Mrs. Mary Spence, at their home in Perkins' addition.

Mrs. Jacob Moritz entertained at cards on Thursday evening.

cards on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Martha S. Adams announces the engagement of her daughter, Alice, to Mr. A. E. Atkins, the wedding to take place Sept. 24.

The May club had a delightful time at he home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilson of Darlington on Wednesday evening. The winners of the prizes were Mrs. W. Williams and Mr. J. W. Timms, Mrs. J. W. Timms and Mr. W. H. Guiver, The hand painted tallies, the work of Miss Meyers, were very much admired. The rooms were decorated with cut flowers. The hostess was assisted by Miss Wilson in serving dainty refreshments, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in rendering recitations and vocal selections. The club will meet next time at the home o Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guiver. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jacobs entertained at dinner on Friday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Dutton of Chicago. The table was dainty in a graceful arrangement of roses and carnations. Covers were laid for ten.

The You and I Crystal club had its The You and I Crystal club had its first meeting of the season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Gallacher Thugsday evening. The rooms presented a very pleasing appearance with their decorations of purple and white. Tiny elk heads were used as tallies. For the game of high five, prizes were awarded, first, to Mrs. Ford and Mr. Harvey; second, Mr. and Mrs. I. Gallacher. A bounteous repast was served, the table decorations also carrying out the colors of the Elks' carnival. After a very enjoyable evening the club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Strickland.

Mr. Hiam Scott, one of the founders of the Third Presbyterian church, has gone to Denver to reside. The remainder of the family were completely surprised Thursday evening, when the church as a body took possession of the Scott home for the evening. In order to demonstrate in a slight degree the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Scott are held in the hearts of the people, a beautiful candelabra was presented them, a gift from the church, a written testimonial accompanying the gift. As Mrs. Scott and the children were about to join Mr. Scott, many were the good-byes said, making a sad ending of an evening joyously spent.

Miss Cora Haslam was the recipient

Miss Cora Haslam was the recipient of an enjoyable surprise party, given by Miss Rebecca Morrison and Nellie Haslem, Wednesday evening, on her fitteenth birthday. The evening was passed in games and vocal music, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the happy time were: Misses Cora Haslam, Rebecca Morrison, Alice Fellows, Nellie Haslam, Lucy Kimball, Clara Noall, Hazel McDonald, Elsie Bull, Ruth Bull, Edith Pearson, Sady Fitt and Cora Fitt; Messrs, Eugene Holleday, Gerald Lindgreen, Norman Sanders, Wilford Amott, Nelson Blake, Roy Nelson, Albert Nelson, Thomas Morrison and Freddie Beesley.

Mrs. J. T. Stringer and Mr. Shade Stringer entertained on Monday evening at their home, 518 South West Temple, in honor of Miss Anna Hartman, who left on Friday night last to join her mother at Seattle, which will be their future home. A profusion of sunflowers, tastefully arranged, provided very preity decofations. The prizes at sixty-three were won by Mr. Will Morris and Miss Geneve Horlick, the consolations being awarded to Miss Anna Hartmann and Mr. Bert Margetts. After refreshments a deightful musical programme took place, consisting of several well rendered plano selections by Miss Horlick and pleasing songs by Messrs. Morris, Glade and Margetts. Messrs. Brewster and Brown, with their mandolin and guitar, furnished delightful entertainment throughout the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs. E. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stringer, Mrs.

Fox. Frank Quist, Cliff Johnson and Hai Reynoids.

At a regular meeting of the Misogynists' club, held Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing twelve weeks: President, Archie Sheppard; vice president, Harry M. Ball; second vice president, Harry M. Ball; second vice president, Harry M. Ball; second vice president, Jay E. Johnson; secretary, T. Colley Stayner; corresponding secretary, Rufus D. Johnson; treasurer, T. F. Jackson; sergeant-at-arms, Will Ball. The honorary title of "Under Dog" was bestowed upon W. D. McGillivray.

Miss Ellen Lenburg of Union and Mr. Coe T. Hill of this city were married in the temple Wednesday. A very pleasant reception was held at the home of the bride's parents the same evening, attended by numerous relatives and immediate friends. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lenburg of Union and is well known and popular in young Salt Lake society. The groom is the son of S. H. Hill, manager of Cunnington & Co. of this city, and is employed in that institution.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. Hugh Anderson has returned from the east.

Miss Laurs S, Beebe of the Intermountain staff, Butte, Mont., is the guest of her mother at 273 Second street.

Miss Edith Wyllie of Chicago is the guest of Miss Edna Cohn.

Mrs. Hirsh and Miss Hirsh left last Wednesday morning for a month's visit in California. Mrs. S. L. Sprague and son, Milton, will spend the autumn in California. Miss Mary Kirkpatrick has returned from New Zealand.

Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag and Miss Mary Hoag are at home at 132 T street.

The Misses Fannie and Laura Bird left yesterday for the east.

Mrs. C. G. Plummer leaves Tuesday for Great Falls, Mont. She will give a concert on Friday for the benefit of the Methodist church there.

Fox, Frank Quist, Cliff Johnson and for the east, to be gone until Novem- for Phillips Exeter college, New Hamp-

Mrs. W. H. Culmer, accompanied by her daughter, Hazel, and son, Arthur B., left Wednesday for an extended trip through Oregon and Washington. Dick Oglesby has gone east to re-ume his studies.

Dr. and Mrs. George Tuttle have re-Mrs. A. M. Grant has gone to Denver or a three weeks' visit.

Miss Elinor K. Peterson is home after a year's absence in Europe.

Mrs. Byron Groo has returned from the east. Mrs. Emily Bailey and daughter, Edna, go east this wek for an extended

Coming and Going.

Miss Laurs S. Beebe of the Intermountain staff, Butte, Mont., is the guest of her mother at 273 Second street.

Mrs. Richard Keyes left last evening

Mrs. Richard Keyes left last evening

Miss Laurs S. Beebe of the Intermountain staff, Butte, Mont., is the guest of her mother at 273 Second street.

Miss Mary Louise Anderson, Miss Jessle Anderson and Miss Keith will spend the winter abroad. Miss Anderson and Miss Keith leave Thursday son and Miss Keith leave Thursday to join Miss Jessie Anderson in Chicago, when a trip to the Buffalo exposition will be made. On Oct. 3 they sail for Europe.

Mrs. Mary Gimer has returned to the east, after a pleasant visit with old friends in this city.

Mrs. Roy McKay and Miss Alff left yesterday for the east.

Miss Pearl Hoffman will spend this week in Provo, the guest of Miss Inez Knight.

Mrs. J. B. Whitney of New York is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Bancroft.

Frank Niles, Harcoid Fabian, Roger Sherman and Athol Rawlins left yesterday for college in Mercersburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dunbar have gone Miss Alice Tittmann, who has pleasantly passed the summer in this city as the guest of Mrs. F. J. Fabian, leaves tomorrow for her home in St. Louis.

Announcement of the death of Miss Mary A. White at Grand Haven, Mich., reached here Friday morning and in the evening Colonel William M. Ferry.

WALKER'S STORE.

About New Things That Tell Us Autumn Is Here

The magic spell of newness pervades the store-the Autumn showing being now quite complete. Looking days, are these, of course, and salespeople gladly tell you all they learned of modes while in the far east paying tribute at the Court of Fashion. Interesting information, you may be sure. Come early.

Autumne Notable Stylish Fale Jacket 1000 Dilks and Dres Goods. An extraordinary chance for the woman wanting a new wrap for fall or with helf eight attend most stylish cut, twenty-seven inches

A rich gathering of bright, beautiful stuffs. A hint of some in the following, which will merely announce, cannot describe. Best to see them.

Velutinas.

For blouse, separate skirts or costume. One of the decided fashion favorites for fall and winter. Comes ed and plain, in rich colorings. $1.25, $2.00 and $2.25 a yard.

Fashionbale Black Goods. Note the names. They suggest the season's partiality to coarse, rugged weaves. Burlaps, Canvas cloths, Hop Sacks, Twine cloth, Cheviots, Crapes, Prunelläs, Camelhair. Blacks of richest dye. 50c to $5.00 a yard.

Waistings. .

Stripes! stripes! and still stripes. Brighter, richer, handsomer than ever, so they seem; yet the glamour of newness and weave difference may be the optical illusion. Striped Granites, Striped Tricot, Striped Albatross, Striped Melrose, Striped Chuddah, Striped Armures. Then come the very new tucked and corded cloths for waists. 60c to $1.75 a. ed cloths for waists. 60c to $1.75 a Autumn Silks.

We couldn't if we tried—so the attempt will not be made—describe the fascinating weaves and charming colorings, of silks for the coming fall and winter seasons. The surprise will be more complete, the enjoyment greater, if left to your own eyes. One of the very new silks, though, we might tell you, is the Pallet de Soie Glace—a changeable effect; then while the one hundred last-98c.

Two for 25c.

Unlaundered, with tiny hand embroidered initials and narrow hem.

The most satisfactory women's hand-thread is linen—which is most un-usual at this price—soft and durable, a new lot imported direct from Ire-

The Elk covers are stamped with elk head and the unique insignia, "Best People on Earth," on purple canvas for outline work. Top and bottom pieces—75c.

Cushion Covers.

land. 1216c each, two-25c

Elk and Gibson

Good Umbrilae 98 For Men + Women

Want a good serviceable umbrella cheap? Then here's your chance. A special lot that came to us while away looking after fall and winter purchases. The umbrellas are made of stout mercerized twill, with steel rod, tight roll, in two sizes-26 and 28-inch, for men and women; handles are of natural wood, carved wood-many trimmed with silver-horn, dresden and pearl. An altogether good umbrella, Monday and 90c Taffeta Silk--63c.

A bargain lump of 1,000 yards we couldn't resist buying. A less number of yards would have brought the cost up to regular market price. Splendid black, strong, lustrous weave, 22 inches wide, suitable for petticoats, waists and dress skirts. 90c a yard taffeta silk for-63c.

The 50c, 75c and $1.00 Dress Goods Counters.

Not for a moment did the maker of these fabrics expect them to sell at the prices we've named. But it is the policy we inaugurated last year, one which you heartly approved—that of marking the goods at reduction price right in the beginning of season, instead of waiting for a few week's profit. As heretofore, these low prices remain the entire season through, no further price curtailing.

THE 50c TABLE: Will contain fabrics made to sell at 65c, 70c and 75c. Choice new weaves brought out this season; color selection now at the very best.

THE 75c COUNTER: Made up of $1.00 values and embraces such weaves as the new Hop Sacks, Sail Cloths, Granites, Canvas Cloth, Serges, Panama cloth and others.

THE $1.00 COUNTER: Contains might tell you, is the Panet de Glace—a changeable effect; then come the Dentellos, Jaspers, Louisines, Roman Stripes, Duchess, Taffetas, Liberties and many, many the new season. $1.25, $1.40 and $1.50 a yard. Rich

New Tailor Dresses at Little Cost For the prices, we did not see two other lines of tailor dresses the Cheviots and Zibelene tailor dresses, jackets made tight fitting, skirts have the new flare flounce and are lined with good nearsilk. Navy blue and black only; very highly tailored—$25.00.

An extraordinary chance for the woman wanting a new wrap for fall or winter. The jackets are of most stylish cut, twenty-seven inches long, with half tight fitting backs, bell or cuff sleeves, velvet and storm collars; splendid quality of imported kersey in tan, castor, blue, red and black; satin lined. Sizes 32 to 40. A remarkably little price at—$10.00.

That Should but 7 50 1000

A manufacturer's samples, so no two alike and not a complete list of sizes. Mostly they are for 6 and 3-year-old girls, but there are some 4, 10, 12 and 14 sizes. Made of different kinds of wool fabrics, all lined in sailor blouse and tight fitting styles, variously trimmed with braid or a contrasting color. If the daughter isn't yet supplied with a warm school dress, you should come eagerly for these; worth $7.50 to $10.00 —$4.95.

Tailor suits made of golf fabrics, with stylish Norfolk jackets, a popular coat of the season, skirts are walking length, nicely stitched—$22.50.

Pall Lines all In newest pattern designs; coats cut with military back and broad shoulders. New overcoats in fall weights, fall styles; so good looking and so moderately priced, you'll never think of making the winter one doing service now: $15.00 to $30.00.

Madras and percale shirts for men are here now in the very newest fashion, cut and coloring. Bosoms are plain and prettily plaited; patterns run mostly to neat stripes. $1.25 to $2.50.

Hats in the new shades and patterned after latest blocks. John B. Stetson stiff hats—$4.00. A $5.00 quality elsewhere. All the novelties in neckwear for men.

Best makes of kid gloves for dress, for street, for driving. Fall and winter lines of underwear in cotton, lisle, silk and wool.

Silk Shirt Waists--$3.95 Worth $6.75 and $7.50

No matter how we came by them, No matter how we came by them, or why they are so little priced—a detail might become tiresome and you are most interested in the waists themselves. They are made of taffeta silk in black and almost every other color; some in fancy lace stripe effects, others quite elaborately tucked; all in shirt waist styles for the coming fall and winter. Should be $6.75 and $7.50, instead—$3.95.

Made of eiderdowns; what else is there so suggestive of downright cosy warmth for the chilly mornings now here. Red, blue, pink, gray, old rose; several styles. Dressing sacques from $1.25 to $5.00. Bath robe $4.95 to $15.00.

Kid Gloves for Autumn.

The odor of the briny sea the door of the briny sea has scarcely left them—so recently have they arrived. Shades come to match the new dress fabrics and are beauties. The choicest—the excuisite French kidskins are priced $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50. The German kidskin, a slightly coarser grain than the French—$1.00 and

Special for the week:
Very fine Suede kid gloves for women, in gray, mode and reindeer shades and all sizes; for fall wear; regularly priced $1.25—85c.

the new beauties. Space and time will by the new beauties. Space and time will be by "Bicycle" hose, black cotton, triple knees, heavy rib, wear resisting time for the fall house cleaning the week?

New stock of rubber gloves, just triple knees, heavy rib, wear resisting time for the fall house cleaning time. All sizes—$1.25.

Cosy Bath Robes and Dressing Sacques. Made of eiderdowns; what else is

Boys' $2.50 to $4.00 Knee Trouser Suits--$1.95

Stout school suits, sewed with the idea to giving the lively boy a tough time in ripping. Made of medium and heavy weight cassimeres, cheviots and worsteds in light, medium and dark colors; sizes 7 to 15 years; were $2.50 to $4.00, now-$1.95.

In Notion Store.

Nethersole bracelets of filled sterling silver, formerly sold at 25c and 35c, now-18c.

Stick pins with opal, turquoise and enamel settings, instead of 25c--10c. Cuff buttons in enamel, gold and black, originally 25c and 35c-18c.

Odd lines of belt buckles, steel, gold and oxidized, that were 25c to $2.00 each-HALF PRICE.

Progressive Crokinole.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Moon invited a few friends to mest Miss Pluncted to Mrs. and Mrs. A. T. Moon invited a few friends at disner at the French kidskins are priesd $1.25.

The Gibson covers are in twelve different designs of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad to mest Miss Pluncted to few friends to mest Miss Pluncted to few friends at disner at the following few forms of the principle for the week.

The Gibson covers are in twelve different designs of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for forms of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for corners of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for coop corners; also stamped for corners where the fad for coop corners are in twelve different designs of the artist's most popular pictures, now quite the fad for cooperative downs. A sold stamped for corners whereas and states and s

Box Party.

Mr. 2nd s. W. C. Hall gave a theatre p Friday evening in honor of Miss Alice Tittmann of St. Louis. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fabian and Miss McCleod.

Informal Affair.

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs -- Knit Underwear and Hosiery News. Women's fleeced cotton union suits, ecru, Oneita style, high neck, long sleeves, ankle length; for early fall wear; superior garments for price—kerchiefs we've ever sold. Every Women's cotton union suits, cream color, high neck, long sleeves, open front, ankle length-75c.

Women's white maco cotton vests, high neck with long sleeves, drawers to match, each—75c.

Women's cream cotton vests, high neck with short sleeves-65c. Children's gray cotton union suits for fall wear, sizes 1, 2 and 3-25c; sizes 4, 5, 6, 7-35c.